

Economic Development of Fruit and Fruit Juice Sector in Turkey

Prof. Dr. Erdogan GUNES

Ankara University Faculty of Agriculture, Head of Agricultural Economics Department

He has been working as a professor since 2012. There are nearly 180 research, books, national and international reports and professional reports on agricultural production economy, food industry management, food economy markets and finance. He has contributed to the work of the food commission in development plans and program studies. He has studied "Foreign capital investments in food and agriculture" at the University of Florida in the United States, and "Agriculture and food business" in the Göttingen, Berlin, Humboldt and Hohenheim Universities. He has also attended congresses, workshops and conferences in Tunisia, Belgium, Austria, Netherlands, South Africa and France. He has awarded Tubitak's scholarship in 2015-2016 at the Ithaca College School of Business in the USA. He carried out a project about agricultural finance over there.